

Seaton St Paul's C of E Junior School

Substantive Concepts Map | History Subject Leader Documents

Substantive concepts are concepts that are concerned with the subject matter of History—the substance about what the children are learning. Substantive concepts may be applied more widely or only to a specific context. It is important that our History curriculum enables students to understand the meaning of these substantive concepts and know how that meaning changes over time and in different contexts.

Year 3
Through the Ages	Emperors and Empires
migration settlement trade civilisation industry	civilisation trade settlement empire monarchy

Year 4
Invasion	Ancient Civilisations
migration trade monarchy settlement rebellion	civilisations trade settlement empire monarchy rebellion

Year 5
Dynamic Dynasties	Groundbreaking Greeks
civilisation power religion society power	civilisation trade settlement empire monarchy

Year 6
Maafa	Britain at War
freedom colony power slavery rights religion trade route	empire monarchy civilisation rebellion